Note to teachers and club leaders: All students who participate in the 2010 poetry statewide competition will receive a certificate of participation. These certificates will be mailed to you for distribution.

JUDGING

Judging will take place in early March 2010. Judges will select first, second, third, and honorable mention winners in both junior and senior high poetry divisions.

Entries will be reviewed by a panel of judges chosen for their professional expertise in the areas of education and experience in the field of suicide prevention.

Judges will evaluate entries on the following:

1. Originality, uniqueness, reflection of creative thinking, style and expression.
2. Appropriateness and relationship to contest theme.
3. Spelling, neatness, readability, emotional/mental impact, etc.

RULES

1. Must follow all rules to qualify.
2. Must not include any personal information (name, age, school, etc.) on the front of the poster or poetic writing.
3. Must have a completed entry form securely attached to the back of each entry.
4. Must be the original work of one student. Any plagiarized work or “joint efforts” will be disqualified.
5. Must clearly reflect the theme’s message, although entries do not have to contain the words of the theme.
6. Work becomes the property of the Arkansas Attorney General’s Office and will not be returned. However, special arrangements can be made on a case-by-case basis, by contacting the numbers listed below.

Poems:

1. Poems must neither be less than 30 nor more than 100 words in length.
2. Typewritten or computer-generated copy is preferred; however, legible printing will be accepted.
