

ATTORNEY GENERAL DUSTIN MCDANIEL'S 2009 OUTSTANDING LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS OF THE YEAR AWARDS

Arkansas Attorney General Dustin McDaniel is accepting nominations from municipal, county, and state law enforcement agencies for the Attorney General's 2009 Outstanding Law Enforcement Officers of the Year Awards. The selection process will be based on statewide participation of qualified candidates who have performed admirably in the line of duty within the last eighteen (18) months.

Each department's nomination will be reviewed by the Attorney General's Selection Committee of criminal justice professionals from around the state. Four (4) individual nominees who have honored the profession in the most outstanding manner – one from each district – will be selected as the Attorney General's 2009 Law Enforcement Officers of the Year for that particular district. The same process will be used to determine one individual selected from all of the nominations as the Attorney General's 2009 Arkansas Law Enforcement Officer of the Year.

Each nomination must include the following:

A personal letter to Attorney General McDaniel sharing the details of the nominee's job performance. Each letter should be limited to no more than two (2) pages in length;

Please feel free to attach copies of background materials or media clippings to substantiate your nomination. You may also attach a photograph of the nominee (optional). All photographs must be labeled on the back with the nominee's name, rank, and department.

Each nomination must be received by the Office of the Attorney General no later than Friday, July 24, 2009
