

Leslie Rutledge Biography

Leslie Rutledge is the 56th Attorney General of Arkansas and first woman elected to the office. She was re-elected to a second term in 2018.

Attorney General Rutledge believes face-to-face conversations lead to real solutions. To make the office more accessible, she hosts Mobile Offices in all 75 counties.

Her priorities have included educating Arkansans on consumer protection, internet safety and dating violence; leading efforts to combat the opioid epidemic; supporting military and veteran families; and making the office a top law firm in the state.

She also created Metal Theft Prevention and Cooperative Disability Investigations programs to stop fraud.

Rutledge leads multi-state issues to include serving on the Republican Attorneys General Association Executive Committee, as Chair of the National Association of Attorneys General Southern Region, and as Co-chair of the National Association of Attorneys General Committee on Agriculture.
